CANTERBURY .- When one notices the many fine performances announced each night at this Hall, and the array of talented performers employed, it is not at all a matter of surprise that Canterbury is crowded nightly. Ernestine de Faiber and Nellie Taylor will sing songs; and ballets, pantomimes, ethiopian acts, &c., will be performed.

Ronzani and his Ballet Troupe; Lina Windell, Lizzie Shultz Mons. Baptistin, and a large number of others nightly appear. M'lle Mazora Arnoldi appears nightly in her representations of Classic Statuary.

Mrs. Riter, on Fourteenth screet near the bridge, had no license. Her liquor destroyed. ALEXANDRIA AFFAIRS .- Several persons were this morning sent by Col. Wells to the Slave Pen for loaning passes, and also those who used them were confined. The business has been carried on quite extensively, and Col. Wells has resolved to stop it. Horse thieves are "plying their vocation," in this place with considerable success-as it appears, the stolen horses, once gone, are rarely if ever recovered. Within the last week, several stables in the town, and on the suburbs. have been broken open in the night, and valuable horses taken out and conveyed away.

The number of restaurants and eating houses in this place, continue to increase rather than diminish. They spring up like mushrooms, in a night, and every day sees a new sign, denoting where the hungry can be fed, - "for a consideration." If one half of the places designated as " oyster houses," are kept supplied with the bivalves, it will take a fleet of craft to furnish the quantity required. There is a protracted meeting in progress, at the Methodist Episcopal Church, in this place. Alexandria papers yesterday.

GRAND LARCENY.-Yesterday, Gcn. Max Weber called upon Mr. A.R. Allen, imaependent detective, and complained that he had been robbed of a one hundred dollar 5.20 bond, with the coupon attached, and thirty dollars in Treasury notes. The money was taken from his trunk at his boarding house on Pennsylvania avenue, near 13th street. Mr. Allen arrested Benjamin Lewis, colored, formerly a servant in the house, and ascertained that the bond had been sold to a broker on Fourteenth street, opposite Willard's Hotel, for a hundred dollars. Upon searching the prisoner, Mr Allen found a number of letters directed to F. Lutz. When Mr. Lutz, who is a manufacturer of saddles, harness, &c., saw the letters, he identified them as a part of his mails, which he had not received, but which fortunately contained no money. Lewis was taken before Justice McKenna, who committed him to jail AFTER SOLDIERS' MONEY .- Wednesday a number of soldiers got into a row near the Park, and were arrested by the second precinct police, who took them to the station, where they were disposed of. Among them was a soldier named Martin King, belonging to the Invalid Corps, who had just been paid off, and had $23 in his pocket; but he, being sober, was released. A few hours afterwards Officer Rolfe found him lying dead drunk on the commons, with his pockets turned wrong side out, some parties having gone completely through him. About the same time, Officer Rolfe found a soldier named Marshall on the commons, surrounded by a number of suspicious parties, who pretended to be his particular friends, but whose sympathies were probably with the money ($160) which was in his pockets. The officer took him to the station, and took charge of his money until morning.

CHILD SHOT IN A Row.-Night before last, several colored men were in a shop near the corner of Seventeenth and M streets, and were talking obscenely, when Beverly Jackson, who lives next door, entered the room and requested them not to talk so loud, when four of them attacked him, pushing him into the street, and knocking him down and beating him, Mr. Jackson however, got away from them, and reached his house, locking the door and arming himself with a pistol. The door was broken open, and they again grappled Jackson, and in the melee the pistol was discharged, the ball passing between Jackson's legs and taking effect in the leg of a little child. Two of the party, Richard Brown and Edward Johnson, were arrested by Officer Mulloy, and committed to jail by Justice Drury.

Ho! FOR GLYMONT .- Osage Tribe, I. O. R. M, will give a grand daylight excursion to Glymont on Monday next, Sept. 28th. The boats will leave Seventh street wharfat 8 o'clock a. m. and 1 o'clock p. m., and will return at 5 and 8 p.m. A fine opportunity is thus afforded for a sail down the Potomac, and a day of enjoyment at Glymont. As all the Tribes of the order of Red Men are represented on the committee, the whole order is exerting itself to make the excursion an unexceptionable one.

ESCAPED FROM A GUARDHOUSE.—A few weeks since, Richard Rivers, belonging to the Second District regiment, was in the guardhouse at the camp, on the charge of desertion, awaiting trial by Court-martial, but he established the court of the charge of the second for days since he was a restant caped, and a few days since he was arrested by the Fifth Ward police on the charge of assaulting a man, and was turned over to the FORD'S NEW THEATER .- This evening the Manager announces the last night but one of The Little Barefoot," and at the sam time the benefit of Miss Maggie Mitchell. If we mey judge the tuture by the past, we should most undoubtedly say that this accomplished lady will not look in vain for a most liberal recognition of this announcement. One as deserving as Miss Mitchell, can always find favor in the eyes of an educated and appreciative public. Head work has made favor for her, and between such spirits there always dwells a lasting and unbounded sympathy. With the precedents of former and late success so largely spread before the Manager and his charming stellar light, we deem it more than useless to advise the collection of a large number of extra seats for this evening.

FEMALE SHOP-LIFTEES .-- Yesterday morning Officer Donn, of the Fourth Ward polize, arrested Annie Cavanagh and Ann Maria Branson for the larceny of a military uniform suit of clothes from Jonas Kern. They were taken before Justice Giberson for a hearing, who sent both to jail for court. Both are young women, and their profanity indicated their profession. The Cavanagh girl is no stranger to the police, who say they arrested her on a former occasion clad in a military uniform.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT .-- Yesterday afternoon, a lad named Eugene Boyle, son of John F. Boyle, aged fifteen years, whilst gunning in a marsh near Easby's wharf in a canoe, in company with a younger brother thirteen years old, was accidentally shot by his younger brother, inflicting a wound which caused death in about an hour and a half. The surviving lad is exceedingly depressed and inconsolable. The premature discharge of the gun was the cause of this very lamentable catastrophe.
